Chairman Mercedes Drummond

President Keith welcomed the following visitors: Laurence Balshaw-Blake and a large group of Artists and friends

Birthdays: Josefina Groom

Anniversaries: Jeff and Glenyce Richardson and Rotary Anniversary Alan Lewis

Honourable mention this week is to the Rotarians and Friends that came along on Saturday and helped with the BBQ. The Club made a profit of ~$2300 from this event and donated $100 back to Camp Quality

The club received letters this week from the Drysdale Pony Club thanking us for inviting them along last week to talk about their new project, from June Alexander inviting members to her 60th birthday and a Christmas card from Jessie Harmon DG

President Keith inducted Kaye Beresford into the Club in the usual manner

Welcome Kaye we look forward to learning more about you and benefiting from your knowledge and expertise.

Reports.

Brian Knights – Treasurers report

Roger Lavingdale – 6 packs of Christmas cards left at $10 a pack

Keith Winter – Train committee meeting on the 1st Wednesday, Working Bee coming up, be prepared and helpers will be required for our NYE event

John Marks – Reminder for the ladies that are coming next week contact Pat if you are planning to attend

SAA – A short sharp session where we all got to contribute....

Brian Knights presented a cheque for $500 to Jan Johanson to help with her sponsoring of children in Bali

Mercedes Drummond then acknowledged the contribution that the Art Show volunteers have made over the last few years and presented each of them with a certificate of Appreciation. They included Bruno Callori, Hugh Guthrie, Richard Jones, Clare Watson, Joy Timms, Shane Watson, Joe Calafiore, Harold Watson, Norman Barr, Tom Erhardt, Ron Peacock and Jill Challis

Keith Stasinowsky presented a Paul Harris Fellowship award to Bruno Callori for the support he has given over many years to this club's Art Show. Not only to the setting up and taking down of the show but to selling raffle tickets by providing miniature paintings as incentives to purchase. He has also been the Artist in residence at the show for the last few years and has agreed to assist in a Young Artist Mentor program. A worthy recipient.
